1. Reference dispatch does not include actual copies of the second edition of your JEWISH publication.

2. Please forward to this office one additional copy of the first JEWISH edition and two copies of the second. We wish also to have two copies of each subsequent issue.

3. Kindly follow the same procedure also in regard to the publications being distributed under Project EASTBOUND, sending regularly two copies each of the pony editions of Telegraf and Neue Zeitung.

4. I should like to re-emphasize the great interest which the Home Office has in the EASTBOUND Project and its desire that it be carried through regularly and effectively. It would be most helpful for us to receive regular weekly reports on this project, indicating for each issue the total distribution, the distribution broken down by urban areas, and any problems which may arise in accomplishing this distribution. ( ) should be in a position to provide such reports.
